Common questions

Cancellation policies for your listing

Sometimes, things come up and guests have to cancel. To keep things running smoothly, you can choose a cancellation policy for each of your listings. When you're ready to do that, here's how.

Canceling a trip due to extenuating circumstances

Not to worry. If you need to cancel your reservation because of an emergency or unavoidable circumstance, we can help: Read our Extenuating Circumstances Policy to check if you're covered Make sure you have any required documentation available Cancel your stay or Airbnb Experience by selecting I have an extenuating circumstance Contact us to file a claim, and we'll walk you through the next steps, which will include submitting any required documentation and waiting for our team to review your case Important: Claims must be submitted within 14 days of cancellation.

Find the cancellation policy for your stay

Maybe you just need the peace of mind before booking, or perhaps you need to cancel right now. Here's how to find the cancellation policy for your stay:
